

Notification for NABARD Student Internship Scheme (SIS) 2023-24

The objective of the Scheme is to assign short term tasks/projects/studies useful and relevant to NABARD, to talented students pursuing post-graduate degree (completing/completed first year) in Agriculture and allied disciplines (Veterinary, Fisheries, etc.), Agri-business, Economics, Social Sciences and Management from Institutes/ Universities of repute or Students pursuing 5 years integrated courses completing/completed 4th year of their course.

The scheme is expected to provide valuable feedback with a fresh perspective through studies/projects undertaken by the students on themes of interest to NABARD.

(A) Total Seats

Total number of seats for NABARD SIS 2023-24 is 40 (35 seats for Regional Offices/TEs & 05 seats for Head Office). Detailed break up of seats is given in Annexure I.

(B) Broad Themes/Areas

The broad objective of SIS 2023-24 will be to assess/gauge the impact of various NABARD interventions at the ground level. The SIS 2023-24 scheme will also serve as an exercise for documentation of success stories of NABARD's projects/programmes/schemes/activities at the field level.

To ensure that we have a decent number of reports on a particular topic so that we can draw reasonable insights, all interns selected under SIS 2023-24 will be required to study one of the following four NABARD interventions only:

- a. Millet Agri-Value Chain
- b. Innovative models in financing FPOs and Agriculture Value Chain
- c. Technology adoption and deepening/strengthening of cooperatives
- d. Way forward for SHG/Strategies for graduation of SHG to micro-enterprises

The study sample may cover mix units/respondents (with and without NABARD's support/interventions) to make a comparative assessment and qualitative feedback.

(C) Eligibility

- i.
